A few days ago officers ran across a houseboat riding on the placid waters of an irrigation canal not a great distance from here. The shack was headquarters for a gang of boys—little fellows, ten to 13 years of age. They were not as most "gangs" of boys, but were banded together for the purpose of plundering and robbing whenever the chance presented itself. There was considerable loot concealed in their retreat, indisputable evidence that the boys are responsible for robberies dating back at least a year. In their possession were four rifles, a number of pistols and many rounds of ammunition. How they escaped detection as long as they did is a mystery to many people—but it is really simple enough. The blame for the lamentable situation may with justice be placed upon the shoulders of the parents of these boys. Neglect in keeping track of their activities, their comings and goings, and indifference as to how their boys secure their pocket money, has enabled more than one lad to lead a vicious life of which his parents remained in ignorance for years. The average boy is not bad. True, he is mischievous, and he may easily develop "ways that are dark and tricks that are vain." Too frequently in this day and age do parents take for granted that their youngsters are in good company when they stay out later than they should. Some parents even fail to set a good example, being constantly away from home themselves, to come reeling in at an "early" hour, too weary to look in their boy's room to see if he is in bed—as they should have been some hours before.

A local realtor—old timer and one of our most progressive citizens—voices a protest against the possible purchase by the Grange of the high school annex for a lodge room. He says that the present high school site should be preserved intact for a future city park and municipal center, and that the Grange should be located, with the other lodges, on the main thoroughfare, suggesting that all local orders band together and erect a modern, beautiful lodge building with some space on the ground floor. The ideas are good. Without question the town will eventually need a recreation center and location for a city hall, and it would be well to have the high school site for that purpose, unmarred by what is fast becoming an unsightly building—the old high school annex. The idea of a fireproof lodge building downtown would mean a lot to the town, and the store space would not be hard to fill. Some day we hope to see the ugly frame buildings on the main street razed—including the Press office—and in their stead neat, fireproof buildings of Californian architecture.

Willow Glen is progressing under incorporation. At the present time they are constructing an addition to the city hall. They hire a motorcycle officer who handles traffic and who is also available to quell other disturbances. Campbell needs a traffic officer, but without incorporation we stand a slim chance of getting one. Trucks and private automobiles hurtle through this town as if it were only a wide spot in the road—and what can we do about it? Nothing! It is nothing but the grace of God that protects our elderly, less spry citizens when they make their little daily trips downtown.

Which brings to us the opportunity to remark on a matter we have long felt the need of getting off our chest: Is there anything to prevent us from getting the county supervisors to declare Campbell avenue a "boulevard stop"? The few wrecks we do have here in the town proper are nearly all caused by an indiscreet entry onto Campbell avenue when another car is traveling that thor-

SCOUT WORK WILL
AWAY, SAYS "JOE"

The Boy Scouts of Campbell, under the leadership of Rev. J. H. Bennett, have re-started their program for the new season. The building that was erected by the local Kiwanis club will soon be alive with the work of the Campfire Girls and the boys.

Campbell's pack of "Cub" Scouts, which was the first pack to be officially organized in the twelfth region and which has for several years been working along the lines laid down by Mr. Bennett, has adopted the new program from headquarters in New York and is now already working out what promises to be a very live work. All boys of nine years will be wolf cubs; ten year-olds bear cubs, and 11-year-olds, lion cubs. This leads them to the scout age and by that time they are ready to advance into tenderfoot rank. Mr. Bennett's own scheme has in a large measure been incorporated into this scheme. The cubs will meet every Friday at 3:30 p. m. The scouts will meet as usual on Thursday at 7 p. m.

Jerome Pope, who is an eagle scout will be assistant scoutmaster and his father will act as instructor. Mr. Bennett will remain as scoutmaster and will supervise all progress. The Sea Scout work which is entirely in control of Worthin Grattan, will carry on in the basement of the Congregational church, where they have prepared for themselves unique quarters.

This year promises to be a very successful one. All parents anxious to know more about the movement are invited to talk to Mr. Bennett. Bible classes are arranged for Sundays at the Congregational church for any boy who has no other church affiliation and desires to find friends.

Senior boys with scout knowledge are invited to assist in the cub work on Fridays. The nature of the program makes assistance essential.

FRED MAU GETS A BIG FISH NEAR THE
SALINAS RIVER

Fred Mau and Walter Prout came home Sunday evening from a fishing trip, with a wonderful story about a striped bass they caught, which weighed 25 pounds and was nearly a yard long—and they had the fish to bear them out in their story.

Mau caught the big fellow on his line, and he said it was just like pulling at the bottom of the ocean. A 25-minute battle took place between the fish and fisherman before the bass was landed. Mau and Prout were fishing at the mouth of the Salinas river. They landed one other fish which could be fitted inside of the larger fish with room to spare.

Fred reports that the striped bass are running now but there are very few the size of the one he caught. Most of them are considerably smaller, but there are lots of them and they are bait-hungry this season.

Congregational Church

This Sunday at 11 a. m. Rev. J. H. Bennett will preach. A special talk for the children is a Sunday morning feature. At 7:30 p. m. there will be stereopticon pictures on "The Story of a Spiritual Adventure." The Christian Endeavor groups will meet at 6:30 p. m.

READ THE PRESSRenewed Interest Shown
In Press Campaign After
Contestants Are Tallied

Renewed interest in the Press Big Popularity Contest was created with the publication in last week's issue of a tabulated report showing the standings of the various contestants, each of whom is determined to win the nifty Ford Sport Coupe, the handsome Majestic Radio, or the valuable Diamond Ring.

SECOND PERIOD NOW IN EFFECT

Second period votes are now in effect and will be until Oct. 3. After that date only the original schedule of votes will be in effect. This is positively the last extra vote offer during the entire contest!

Some of the contestants have a good start, but not so far ahead that any girl who is ambitious cannot enter at this time and forge ahead so as to be up among the leaders by the next count. Now is the time of all times to take advantage of the last extra vote offer and make every minute count. Be determined to be the grand prize winner and let nothing discourage you.

How to win, though behind, might well be said of this new special vote offer—advertising and job printing contracts which is now creating a sensation among the contestants. To win one of these prizes is just a matter of going after them, and work each day and show your friends that you are really out to win. The contracts now being sold are good for advertising and job printing and good until September 30, 1931.

Say it with votes.

CONTESTANT	VOTES
Jessie Silberbauer	265,000
Abbie Morgan	263,000
Josephine LaBarbera	257,000
Mrs. Leonard Shadle	252,000
Rose Abinante	249,500
Mildred Cook	228,000

Congregational
Guild Bazaar
Date Is Set

The dates for the bazaar for which the Congregational Guild has been working since the first of the year have been set for Nov. 13 and 14, afternoons and evenings.

The "Autumn Fair" is the interesting title chosen for the festival which will include a sale of light refreshments on Thursday evening and a cafeteria supper and play Friday.

The cast for the play, a mystery comedy, "A Scream in the Dark," is being coached by Mrs. T. A. Cutting, who has so successfully directed several plays and pageants in the past. The cast includes the Misses Annette Merrill, Dorothy Merriam, Ebba Swanson, Mrs. Hazel Baum, Lloyd Brown, Warren and Lloyd Johnson, Abe Classon and Elmer Sundquist.

The arrangements for the supper will be in charge of Mrs. F. H. Cutting.

The four groups of the Guild have been busy at work on articles of every variety for their booths and a wide selection will be offered patrons, and the early date will be in ample time for Christmas shopping.

Mesdames Harry Smith, Mary Lanphear, Lillian Shaw and F. Duncan are in charge of publicity for the fair.

Christian Scientists To Hear Lecture In Los
Gatos Next Week

A lecture on Christian Science, entitled, "Christian Science, What It Is and What It Is Not," by Charles E. Jarvis, C. S., of Los Angeles, will be given by the First church of Christ, Scientist, of Los Gatos in the church edifice on East Main street, Tuesday evening, Sept. 30 at 8:15 o'clock.

Charles Jarvis is a member of the board of lectureship of the First church of Christ, Scientist, at Boston, Mass. Everyone is welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ochs, one time residents of Campbell but now living in Burlingame, visited friends here Thursday.

LOCAL BASEBALL 9
DEFEATS SAN JOSE
MOOSE SUNDAY

Another baseball game was played Sunday at the Campbell diamond, between the local nine and the San Jose Moose. The Moose had once before met defeat at the hands of Campbell, but they attributed the local win to the fact that they, the Moose, were using a substitute pitcher. Sunday they had their regular hurler in the box and were, at the close of the game, on the short end of a 7-12 tally.

This wasn't a league game, but it was official. Padilla tossed a wonderful game for Campbell. Jack McWhorter made a so-called homerun. He hesitated for a second on third and made it home while the ball was being exchanged. Shelley made a spectacular play when he ran into Fourth street to catch the ball with one hand.

Next Sunday there will be a ball game on the new diamond back of the grammar school building and the fans are asked to use the new grandstand. The fact that spectators are in the habit of entering into the arguments of the players is expected to become a thing of the past when belligerent fans are safely tucked away in the stand. "Gate" receipts are beginning to pick up a little.

ATWATER-KENT IS PRODUCING MANY
RECEIVERS NOW

The three-millionth Atwater-Kent receiving set has just been manufactured, according to Dunlap & Smiley, distributors here for the Atwater-Kent radios.

The production of this set stands as an all-time record in the history of the radio industry. Beginning with radio production in a small way in 1923, the Atwater-Kent Manufacturing company has successively reached the first million, then the second and now the third million in radio receivers.

"Like most others in the industry, we feel a strange sense of wonder at the remarkable production record," said Mr. Dunlap yesterday. "With many other retailers, we have sold a great many Atwater-Kent receivers, particularly of the Golden Voice model, which is the most recent production, but we scarcely realized that our own efforts, combined with that of many others, had rolled up such an amazing sales total. We are joining with retailers all over the United States next week in paying tribute to Mr. Kent for this achievement, and we expect to have in our store a special display of the merchandise in celebration of the event."

Mr. Dunlap feels that business is distinctly on the upgrade and that fall and Christmas sales will be highly satisfactory.

"DOC" WELLS IS
ON THE AIR FROM
RADIO KROW NOW

Fred F. Wells, better known to the people of the United States and Canada as Sgt. "Doc" Wells, was, previous to the war, an actor and newspaperman. At the outbreak of the war he was working on the Vancouver Daily Province, in British Columbia, and was the first man to enlist for service overseas. In recognition of which, upon his return to Canada, after being severely wounded and gassed at the battle of Ypres, April 24, 1915, he was appointed by the Canadian government as an official lecturer on the government's war films, "Canada's Fighting Forces," and lectured throughout Canada and the United States.

Upon the entry of America into the war, being an American, born in Boston, Mass., he was engaged by the Red Cross and liberty loan committees to lecture in the United States, and was successful in selling over $8,000,000 in Liberty bonds, as well as raising large sums for the Red Cross and prisoners of war funds. When the war ended he organized and toured Canada with his own musical comedy company, later touring the United States with his own dramatic military play, "Clouded Honor," in which he played the leading role, that of Private Harris.

During the past ten years he has been an active leader of veterans' organizations, having been elected state commander of the Disabled Veterans of the World war for the state of California in 1924 at Fresno. He is also a life honorary member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of America, an honor that was conferred upon him in recognition of his work in behalf of veterans.

Sergeant Wells in his presentation of "Sunshine and Shadows of Life," on the air, over radio station KROW at Oakland, tells brief stories of his war experiences in a dramatic manner, interspersed with an unusual vein of bright witicism, and of which radio critics say, "Over the air he scatters sunshine, tells stories of war horrors which are peace preachment—a new type of radio entertainment, and well worth attention."

Sergeant Wells is heard every Tuesday, Thursday, Saturday and Sunday nites at 10:45.

Congregation'l Congress
At Berkeley Will Feature
Rev. Harold M. Kingsley

Rev. Harold M. Kingsley of Chicago, pastor of the Church of the Good Shepherd, has accepted an invitation to appear on the program of the Pacific Slope Congress of Congregational Churches, to be held in Berkeley Sept. 30 and Oct. 1-2.

Dr. Kingsley, who is a Negro, has contributed to the solution of the problems arising from the great influx of Negroes into the cities of the north. At Cleveland, Detroit and now at Chicago he has built up large Negro congregations, and provided them with adequate church facilities. His present church, which was organized in 1925 with 24 members, according to the Chicago Tribune, has now a membership of 625, with standing room only at most of the Sunday morning services.

In 1917 he was honored by being elected assistant moderator of the national council of Congregational churches. He has become one of the country's foremost leaders in helping the south-born colored person to adjust himself to a new environment.

He will speak twice on the program of the congress, endeavoring to set forth the gospel of Jesus Christ as it applies to inter-racial questions.

HOWDY FOLKS—A society for the preservation of cactus has been formed in Arizona. Housewives have preserved watermelon rind all these years, but this is the first time we ever heard of anyone preserving cactus.

Cactus needles are in great demand by manufacturers of woolen underwear. Any one who has ever worn woolen underwear knows that it is made chiefly of cactus needles.

When reached yesterday by long distance phone regarding a poem for today's issue Mr. McBethwater was in a turbulent mood, due to a recent visit from a relation. He hastily dictated the following verse:

We're shooting the gink who says,

D'you think
You could lend us a fiver

Lois Rice Hostess At Shower for Miss Louise Smith

Miss Lois Rice was hostess to a number of friends at a surprise shower at her home on Rineon avenue Friday night in honor of Miss Louise Smith, who is to be married to Clayton Willis Sunday, Sept. 28. The gifts to Miss Smith were mostly beautiful linen.

The rooms of the home were decorated in yellow and orange crepe paper and black-eyed Susans. Games and music were enjoyed during the evening and refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by her mother, Mrs. A. D. Rice.

Invited guests were Esther Lynden, Ethel and Francis Fletcher, Marjorie and Leona Prout, Veva Nichols, Eva Mitchell, Eva Robinson, Evelyn Smith, Katherine Aldrich, Miriam Blaine, Gladys Burns, Margaret Keesling, Nellie Green, Ruth Newton, Clara Rice, Mrs. Walter Smith and Mrs. A. D. Rice.

LOCAL HUNTERS BAG A FEW DEER

Deer hunters of Campbell were well rewarded this year, most of them securing buck. Among those who got their venison were John Breeding of Saratoga, well known in Campbell, who shot two buck near Madrone, each weighing between 80 and 100 pounds; Fantozze, one, near Tracy, which weighed 140 pounds; Jock Boden, one; Jimmy Hogan, two, one in the Mt. Hamilton region which was one of the biggest deer of the season, dressing out 168 pounds, and another near King City. Lewis Schad got his buck in the Mt. Hamilton region, 135 pounds; George Payne, one, 85 pounds; Gayno Eddlemon and Donald Lent got a buck between them and Al West bagged one. Weights are dressed.

How To Win

How to win one of these wonderful prizes might well be said of this new special offer for advertising and job printing that is now creating a sensation among the contestants.

To win one of these wonderful prizes is just a matter of going after it from NOW until the close of the campaign.

If you haven't started gathering the votes very energetically yet, what better OPPORTUNITY could you have than this BIG DOUBLE VOTE OFFER?

This important offer counts for twice as many votes as in the next period and lasts only until Friday, Oct. 3. That allows plenty of time to get in touch with all your friends and secure their business—and the business of their friends!

NEW INTEREST ADDED TO PRESS' BIG CONTEST

Double votes are now in effect on subscriptions, advertising and job work, and will be only until Friday, Oct. 3. After that day and date only the original schedule of votes will prevail. So now is the time to get that business!

This sensational double vote offer is creating unbounded interest throughout the campaign territory.

Now is the time for all good men to come to the aid of their party!!!!!!

WHICH ONE OF THESE PRIZES WILL BE YOURS?

A FEW WEEKS FROM NOW A CONTESTANT WILL BE GLIDING ALONG IN THAT NIFTY FORD SPORT COUPE.

WILL IT BE YOU

This Big Campaign may be likened to a problem in arithmetic, in that work, plus votes equal a Ford Sport Coupe or $177.50 Majestic Radio or a $125 Beautiful Diamond Ring.

Is it possible that you will be content to sit and let others talk YOU out of a wonderful Automobile, Radio or Diamond Ring, and have others, perhaps with no more ability, friends or popularity than you have, win the extraordinary prizes?

Well, that is just what will happen if you sit and think about this campaign and wish that you could win one of the big, wonderful prizes and not make every minute of the rapidly passing time count by getting all the votes you can NOW. Start in now and just do your level best until the close of the campaign and you will not regret what little time you put into this big opportunity campaign.

Colder days are coming Gas-fired heating is clean and care-free

Colder days are coming. So plan now to have convenient warmth and comfort.

With modern gas-fired heating equipment, your finger's touch controls the heat. You make no trips to the basement on cold mornings. You build no fires.
Mother does not tend the furnace when father is away.

And gas is a clean fuel. All burnt gases go outdoors through the chimney without mingling with the pure,
warm air in your home.

As a result, your furniture, upholstery, and curtains stay clean. The exterior of your home does not need re-painting so often.

Come into our office or a dealer's store and see the Furnaces and Boilers for heating the entire home. There are also Floor Furnaces and Circulating Room Heaters for homes having no basement and Radiant fires for the fireplace. Just telephone and a competent heating specialist will call and gladly discuss the heating of your particular home.
